

Introducing AnchorDisability

The ability of an organisation or provider to deliver safe and quality care to their consumers is significantly influenced by the ability and knowledge of its staff and personnel.

AnchorDisability provides bespoke solutions to organisations to enable your staff improve their performance and capability. We have practical, on the ground experience in managing services and working in the business and can tailor supports based on your individual needs. Our programs are designed to be delivered to audiences large and small and can either be conducted face to face or via webinar/ remote options.

Our content is tailored to be appropriate to all levels of staff from the Board through to direct care staff.

Why AnchorDisability?

The leaders at Anchor Excellence will provide your team with information to:

- ✓ Ensure you are complying with the regulatory areas of the NDIS Act and NDIS Rules
- ✓ Ensure you are aligned with the NDIS Code of conduct
- ✓ Ensure you are aligned with the NDIS Practice standards
- ✓ Identify your operational requirements as a registered NDIS provider of support and services to an NDIS participant

What's involved?

- We will guide you through your regulatory requirements
- We will review your internal systems and processes to ensure compliance with the regulatory requirements
- We will review your internal resourcing requirements to successfully meet your regulatory requirements
- We will make recommendations guiding you to meet your regulatory requirements
- Identify opportunities for educational enhancement through designing and delivering targeted training programs

What are the benefits?

We will support you to ensure your staff are fully aware of, and understand their responsibilities under the NDIS Act and the Rules. This will build confidence in your staff and allow them to return to their organisations with a focus to ensure the organisation complies with all requirements.

Anchor Excellence will work closely with you to ensure that your personalised education strategy not only meets your needs but also leads to improved performance and capability for your entire team.

We are passionate about leaving a legacy of improved capability and will support you to ensure the sustainability of practice, leading to improved services and consumer experience.

How we work with you

Working in partnership with Anchor Excellence, you will benefit from a collaborative and trusting relationship with a team of leaders who are committed to working with you, building capacity and insights into NDIS in Aged Care.

With the Australian aged care landscape undergoing an enormous transformation, leadership is critical. AnchorDisability was borne of the recognition that any business operating within or alongside the aged care sector will experience varying degrees of impact in the regulatory and operational interface between aged care and disability.

AnchorDisability has the expertise to guide you through this new landscape. Our team of specialists will work with you to ensure that AnchorDisability is tailored to your needs to build a sustainably successful organisation.
